The Kootenay Pro Series held its Tour Championship on September 16 and 17 at the Radium Resort Springs Course. We would like to thank the Radium Resort and Brent Taylor for hosting the two-day event. Thanks also go out to Dale Wilder and his maintenance staff as the course was in great shape.

Kootenay Pro Series would like to thank all our sponsors for a great season. To our title sponsor Rick Lea, Greg Murtland and Darren Evens from Adams, Adidas, Ashworth and TaylorMade and Jeff and Tara Ciecko of CK Golf Solutions as the presenting partner of the Kootenay Pro Series. To Michael Anderson and Big Horn Meadows Resort as the main sponsor for the Tour Championship and all our event sponsors Kerry Ellingboe from the Radium Petro Can, Keith Irwin and Alicia Shanks of the Invermere Pharmasave, Ed Weins Screammers Ice Cream Shop, Corey Rokosh Kootenay Paving and Skandia Concrete and to our Order of Merit Sponsor Phil McDonald and Club Car.

Thank you to all the players and sponsors who came out and played in the Championship and after two days of play we needed more golf to determine the winner. A two hole playoff between Jeremy Johnson from the Fairmont Resort and Trevor Simkins from Bootleg Gap, Jeremy Johnson ended up as the 2013 Kootenay Pro Series Tour Champion.
